Code of Conduct

1. Philosophy and Code of Conduct – 2016

“Insert name of your club” is committed to the ideals, principles and disciplines of AFL Masters as expressed in the attached Philosophy and Code of Conduct.

The Executive Committee of “Insert name of your club” requires all members, players and supporters to commit to and abide by the Philosophy and Code of Conduct.

All members, players and supporters should take the time to read them carefully and acknowledge their commitment by signing the attached Members Code of Conduct Form and returning it to the Club.

The Members Code of Conduct Form must be signed by the member, the President and witness prior to the member being accepted as a member of the Club.

Umpire penalties for on field offences

All players are reminded of the Order-Off-Rule that may be imposed by all field umpires and AFL Masters VicMetro Superules Football League Inc. Executive Committee members.

- a. A Green card penalty being automatic send-off for the remainder of the current quarter plus the next Quarter. Player can be replaced.
- b. A Yellow card penalty being automatic send-off until the end of the Current Day. Player cannot be replaced.
- c. A Red card penalty being automatic send-off until the end of the Current Day plus automatic next 2 games suspension. Player cannot be replaced. (Tribunal can be called if necessary.)

2. Insurance, Injury and Member Consent Form – 2016

Due to the excessive rise in the costs of insurance cover, the National Board of AFL Masters, in conjunction with all AFL Masters State Associations has made the decision NOT to seek personal accident cover or loss of wage insurance for players and officials.

All players and officials are STRONGLY ADVISED to make provision for their own Accident, Life, Income Protection and Health insurances to protect themselves in the event of injury sustained whilst participating in Masters Australian Football.

Consequently, every participant in VicMetro will be required to complete and sign a Members and Players Membership Consent Form prior to undertaking any playing or non-playing role with their respective clubs.

The Members and Players Membership Consent Form must be signed by the member, the President and witness prior to the member participating in any game of football in which the Club is involved.

Philosophy of AFL Masters – 2016

The most important aspect of our game is that it is “FOOTBALL FOR FUN”.

All AFL Masters participants should adhere to this philosophy and accept the following guidelines:

1. Egos are to be left at home.
2. We should recognise good performance and applaud the efforts of both teams and umpires.
3. Criticism of other player's performance and ability is not acceptable and will not be tolerated.
4. The game is played for fun and enjoyment by all.
5. Disputing an umpire's decisions or abuse of any umpires is totally unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
6. On field and off field fighting, violence or bad language is totally unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

7. Games Selection Criteria.

We obviously need far more players to get through a season than can take the field at the start of any given match, and whilst every player will be given the chance to play, selection cannot help but be influenced by the following: paid membership, attendance at training, participation in club activities and duties and willingness to travel to away games.

The above does not mean that players who cannot train or play regularly will not be welcomed and not get a game, however they must be prepared to accept and understand our priorities, just as we understand that at our age there are a variety of factors that prevent some players being available each week.

8. Notwithstanding point 7, every effort will be made to give all players equal time on the ground.
9. Hospitality to visiting teams is very important. As we partake of other team's hospitality during our travels to away games, all players should recognise the importance of returning the favour.
10. AFL Masters recognises the importance of involving our families in our activities and will continue to make a conscious effort to do so.
11. New players are always very welcome, but should be made fully aware of the Philosophy and Code of Conduct and adhere to what is required of them as a representative of the club and AFL Masters.

Remember, at our age, it is not how many games you win, but how many games you play. For that reason we have modified rules and modified attitudes to playing in order to minimise the risk of injury and keep us playing and enjoying our great game even longer.
