Social Media Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 AFL Masters Victorian Metropolitan Superules Football League Inc. (AFLVM) recognises that Social Media and digital communications are a valuable tool to engage and connect with members, players, supporters, sponsors and other key stakeholder groups, and that Social Media is an increasingly important method of communications for members and players.
- 1.2 The rapid growth and evolution of Social Media requires an overarching AFLVM policy that ensures Relevant Persons engaging in Social Media have an understanding about appropriate guidelines and usage.
- 1.3 The intention of this Social Media Policy (Policy) is to establish a culture of openness, trust and integrity in activities surrounding Social Media and the Internet, in conjunction with education and training.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 The purpose of this Policy is to set out AFLVM's rules for the appropriate use of Social Media by Relevant Persons, whether for or on behalf of AFLVM, engaging with AFLVM, or personally whilst a member of AFLVM.
- 2.2 The aim of this Policy is to:
 - (a) promote and encourage appropriate use of Social Media by Relevant Persons;
 - (b) ensure that Relevant Persons understand AFLVM's approach to Social Media, and its expectations for the personal and professional use of online communication; and
 - (c) govern the terms of use by Relevant Persons of AFLVM-controlled, administered or related Social Media.
- 2.3 This Policy also aims to protect the Intellectual Property, Confidential Information, brand, reputation and viability of AFLVM as well as the rights and interests of Relevant Persons.

3. APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

- 3.1 This Policy applies to Relevant Persons. Under clause 78 of the AFLVM Constitution, this Policy binds all members of AFLVM as a By-Law implemented by the Board.
- 3.2 While this Policy does not form part of any contract of employment, failure to comply with the procedures below may result in disciplinary action by AFLVM against Staff Members or any Relevant Person.
- 3.3 This Policy may be updated by AFLVM from time to time.
- 3.4 This Policy applies to all communications published by Relevant Persons on Social Media.

4. POLICY GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

- 4.1 The use of Social Media is regarded as an essential and convenient tool in day to day life and business. It must be used in a manner that upholds the policies and procedures of AFLVM and in a way that reflects the responsible and upstanding principals of the organisation.
- 4.2 The use of Social Media by any Relevant Person should be appropriate, responsible and ethical:
- (a) All AFLVM communications posted, shared or sent on Social Media, whether by an Authorised User or otherwise, are considered official communications of AFLVM in the same manner as documents on AFLVM letterhead and, therefore, must be consistent with the values, ethics, policies, aims and objectives of AFLVM;
 - (b) All communications posted, shared or sent on Social Media by Relevant Persons in their personal capacity may still be considered by others, whether correct or not, as a communication of AFLVM, or otherwise representing the views, values or beliefs of AFLVM or members of AFLVM. As such, AFLVM expects that such communications will at all times be consistent with the values, ethics, policies, aims and objectives of AFLVM.
- 4.3 The use of Social Media by any Relevant Person should be made with a clear distinction between acting in a professional capacity and a personal capacity.

5. AFLVM BUSINESS USE – AUTHORISED USERS

- 5.1 Only Authorised Users are authorised to comment or publish information on Social Media for or on behalf of AFLVM.
- 5.2 To become an Authorised User of specific Social Media, a Staff Member must gain the approval of the General Manager in writing.
- 5.3 Once a Staff Member has received authorisation to use Social Media for and on behalf of AFLVM, the Staff Member must:
- (a) comply with the terms of this Policy;
 - (b) disclose that they are an employee/contractor of AFLVM;
 - (c) use only authorised AFLVM accounts with that particular Social Media, unless authorised to use an approved official account or avatar;
 - (d) disclose and comment only on information classified as information already within the public domain;
 - (e) ensure that all content published is accurate and not misleading, and complies with all relevant AFLVM policies and other relevant requirements;
 - (f) comment only on the Staff Member's area of expertise and authority;
 - (g) ensure comments are respectful; and
 - (h) adhere to the terms of use for the Social Media platform or website being used.

- 5.4 The Staff Member must not:
- (a) do anything that may cause harm to the business, brand, reputation or rights of AFLVM or its Associated Parties or the Events;
 - (b) disclose information about an AFLVM stakeholder that is confidential or commercially sensitive without the written approval of the stakeholder and AFLVM;
 - (c) disclose any Confidential Information without the appropriate written approval; or
 - (d) post any material that might otherwise cause or be likely to cause damage to AFLVM or its Associated Parties' reputation, or bring or be likely to bring AFLVM, its Associated Parties, the Staff Member, the Events or the Sport into disrepute.
- 5.5 Staff Members are encouraged to contact AFLVM's Authorised Users with any Social Media requests so AFLVM can act on their behalf. Relevant Persons are further encouraged to 'share' posts that are created and shared by AFLVM Authorised Users.
- 5.6 At all times when using Social Media for and on behalf of AFLVM, Staff Members must comply with this Policy and any training, directions and guidance provided by AFLVM about how to use Social Media.
- 5.7 Where accessing Social Media via the Computer Network, all Relevant Persons must:
- (a) not provide comments to journalists, politicians or lobby groups other than in the course of their official duties, as approved under this Policy; and
 - (b) not spend unreasonable amounts of time using Social Media that is unrelated to official duties.
- 5.8 AFLVM must ensure that a comment moderation policy or terms and conditions are clearly available when inviting comments from the public on an official AFLVM website or social media platform.
- 5.9 All AFLVM Website activity, including the use of Social Media, must be approved by the General Manager unless otherwise authorised under this Policy.

6. PERSONAL USE

- 6.1 Relevant Persons should be aware that communications made through Social Media have the potential to impact on AFLVM and its Staff Members. Potential damage may be caused in certain circumstances, whether or not the Relevant Person is identified as having an affiliation with AFLVM.
- 6.2 Relevant Persons must take their employment or affiliation with AFLVM into account when using Social Media, particularly in the following circumstances:
- (a) Social Media use that has the capacity to damage the Relevant Person's professional reputation;
 - (b) Social Media use that has the capacity to damage the reputation of AFLVM or the Sport;

- (c) Social Media use that has the capacity to damage the Relevant Person's ability to work with their colleagues; and
- (d) Social Media use that breaches another of AFLVM's policies.

6.3 When using Social Media in circumstances that are intended to be personal or private, Relevant Persons must:

- (a) make it clear that the Relevant Person's private opinions are their own and not say or do anything that may indicate that they represent either the views of AFLVM or their connection with AFLVM. The Relevant Person may wish to use a disclaimer such as "any views expressed on this site/account are those of the author only" or "these views are personal and mine alone";
- (b) not publish anything harmful, obscene, abusive, offensive or illegal as a consequence of which harm may be caused to AFLVM or its Associated Parties, the Sport or the Event;
- (c) not post any material that might otherwise cause or be likely to cause damage to AFLVM's reputation, or the reputation of the Sport or Event, or bring or be likely to bring AFLVM, the Relevant Person, the Sport, the Event or the Associated Parties into disrepute;
- (d) not post content that is in breach of one or more of AFLVM's policies;
- (e) not disclose information about AFLVM or its operations that is confidential or likely to cause harm to AFLVM or its Associated Parties;
- (f) only disclose and discuss publicly available information;
- (g) not use or disclose AFLVM's Intellectual Property or Confidential Information, including but not limited to AFLVM's logos, an AFLVM email address or insignia;
- (h) not use the identity or likeness of a Staff Member;
- (i) ensure that they are respectful of others at all times and comply with AFLVM's policies if they interact with (or about) AFLVM-related matters;
- (j) adhere to the terms of use of the relevant Social Media; and
- (k) comply with all laws including, but not limited to misleading and deceptive conduct, anti-discrimination, victimisation, vilification, privacy, intellectual property, anti-bullying, harassment and defamation.

7. MONITORING & PRIVACY

7.1 While it is not AFLVM's usual practice to do so, AFLVM may intercept or monitor Staff Members' use of Social Media on the Computer Network.

7.2 This may include, but is not limited to, the interception and/or reading of any message sent or received and any page visited via the Internet. By using AFLVM's Computer Network facilities, the Staff Member is deemed to have consented to such monitoring by AFLVM.

- 7.3 AFLVM may record any information posted to its Social Media and may use that information for the purposes of administering such Social Media or any other purpose consistent with AFLVM's Privacy Policy.
- 7.4 AFLVM strongly recommends that all Relevant Persons protect their own personal privacy by not including personal information in Social Media communications (for example but not limited to, email addresses, residential addresses and telephone numbers).

8. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 8.1 All Relevant Persons have a responsibility to ensure that their actions in relation to the use of Social Media comply with this Policy.
- 8.2 In particular, Relevant Persons are required to:
- (a) comply with this Policy;
 - (b) report any perceived incidence of non-compliance with this Policy to AFLVM, and to maintain confidentiality while the incident is being resolved; and
 - (c) contribute to the elimination of the Improper Use of Social Media from AFLVM's work environment.
- 8.3 If a Relevant Person becomes aware of inappropriate or unlawful content, or content that is in breach of this Policy, relating to AFLVM, they should report the circumstances via email to the following contact:

9. CONSEQUENCES

- 9.1 If directed by AFLVM, the responsible Relevant Person will remove, rectify and/or publish a correction about, any material published on Social Media that, in the view of AFLVM, may breach this Policy or otherwise bring or be likely to bring, the AFLVM, a Relevant Person or a AFLVM sponsor into disrepute.
- 9.2 A Relevant Person who breaches this Policy may be responsible for any loss suffered by AFLVM, or its Associated Parties.
- 9.3 If a claim that Social Media has been used improperly is substantiated, disciplinary action, including but not limited to under the AFLVM Constitution, may result. The level of action will depend on all the circumstances, including the severity of the conduct. The outcomes could include, but are not limited to:
- (a) a formal apology;
 - (b) a warning;
 - (c) suspension or termination of membership, or membership benefits; or
 - (d) termination of employment (with or without notice).
- 9.4 Breaches of this Policy will be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary provisions under AFLVM's Constitution and associated policies.

10. REFERENCES
